Libraries around the state submitted questions about the process, the answers to which were released last week. Ms. Kuzma is in the process of reviewing them. The planning board presentation is scheduled for 2/26. The Board must pass a resolution next month giving permission to apply for the grant. C. Approve the revised Salary and Wage Table

Ms. Kuzma explained that in order to post open positions on the NJLA website, the library must meet their minimum salary requirements. It was determined that the Director and Assistant Director positions were 8% below the minimum, and the librarian position was 6% below. The recommendation is to raise the minimum salary of the director and assistant director by 8%, and all of the other staff minimum salaries by 6%. This type of adjustment has not been made for several years, and needs to be done to keep up with industry standards. The net effect would be raising the salaries of 39 current employees at an approximate cost of $27,500.

Ms. Cornavaca moved to approve the revision to the salary and wage table, effective February 19, 2020. Dr. Freedman seconded. Voting yes: Mayor Cohen, Ms. Cornavaca, Dr. Freedman, Ms. Pan, Ms. Punjabi, Ms. Spadafino, Ms. Velez and Ms. Wendell. Voting no: none.

E. Trustee Protocols and Trainings
Dr. Cornavaca reviewed protocols for board communication with the library director and required annual training. Dr. Cornavaca explained that the Board collectively must complete 7 hours of training for the year. Ms. Kuzma distributed a list of some online training options available. The Board can also attend the highly recommended Trustee Institute on October 17, 2020. All members were asked to let library administration know if they do complete any training so the numbers can be recorded. With respect to communications protocols, Dr. Cornavaca reminded board members that the protocol of the board is to funnel all communications and inquiries for the library director through the Board President or Vice President. Trustees should not each individually go to the director with inquiries, issues or concerns.
