PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Ms. Cornavaca welcomed Ms. Kathy Spadafino to the Board. Ms. Spadafino introduced herself, and each of the Board members introduced themselves in turn.

Karen Karnchanapee and Anita Varshney, co-Presidents of the Friends of the Library, reported that upcoming events include Bunco night on Friday, January 24, the annual Book and Media Sale running from March 29 through April 5 and the spring meeting, featuring author Jennifer K. Armstrong on May 19, 2020. The membership mailing went out in December, and to date 240 members have joined the Friends.

No student representatives were present to submit a report.

Ms. Pan reported that the Foundation Board met and discussed the renovation and the need for more Board members. The appeal letter has been sent out, and over $6,800 has been received to date. The Board is ready to work on the Capital Campaign as soon as renderings are received for the renovation. Ms. Cornavaca appealed to the Board to seek out new members for the Foundation.

Mayor Cohen reported that the State of the Township address will be given on Monday, January 27. The township is working off of a temporary budget for the first quarter of 2020, and hopefully he will sit down with Library administration soon to discuss the library budget. He also stated that the Paychex payroll system was not working as hoped, and the township will probably be instituting a new system by the end of 2020.

FINANCIAL REPORT

The Board reviewed the treasurer’s report, the monthly statistics and the bill lists. Ms. Podolsky pointed out that the revenue did not meet projections for 2019, due to declining fine and DVD revenues.

CORRESPONDENCE

Ms. Cornavaca passed around a retirement email from long-standing Library Attorney, Bertram Busch, a retirement letter from Circulation Manager Katherine Bowden, as well as a letter from PSE&G stating that the township changed 3rd party providers. Ms. Cornavaca also announced Ms. Podolsky’s resignation as of February 7, 2020. She thanked her for her vision, the changes to the library building, as well as the technology upgrades. Mr. Lewin also added his thanks to Ms. Podolsky for her leadership.
REPORTS OF STANDING AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Personnel Committee:

This committee met to review the salary and wage table to make sure that the minimums meet NJLA standards in order to be competitive. Revisions to this table will be presented to the Board for approval at an upcoming meeting.

Ms. Pan will serve as chair of this committee consisting of Ms. Palumbo, Ms. Velez and Ms. Punjabi. The search for a new Director will start immediately, with the hope of an April 1 start date. DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Ms. Podolsky reviewed the highlights of the November and December Director’s reports, including several retirements. Ms. Podolsky also reported that the Library will partner with the East Brunswick Mall to create a Book Nook, and that Karen Parry, Information Services Manager, applied for a grant from Google to develop programs for underprivileged entrepreneurs and made it into the second round. The teen librarian position was moved to the Youth Services department.

B. Construction Bond Application
Ms. Podolsky distributed the latest renovation floor plan, and described the project. The library is working with Leslie Burger to form questions to send to the State concerning the application process, and preparing a timeline for the application submission. The library is awaiting a quote from NK Architects for their additional work required for the Planning Board presentation. The construction cost estimate received is approximately $5.7 million, but that does not include architect and engineering services, furniture, parking lot upgrades, the automatic book sorter or IT upgrades. The state released $79 million to be distributed during this phase of the grant. Some discussion ensued about the specifics of the project, including where the funding will come from. Ms. Cornavaca explained that there is some money in reserves, the Foundation will run a capital campaign to raise money, and Mayor Cohen has stated that the township can issue a bond for what is necessary. Library administration needs to know by the February Board meeting if the Board wants to proceed with the project, and they must pass a resolution to that effect for the bond application. Ms. Cornavaca asked the board to send her any thoughts or questions on this prior to next month’s meeting. A question arose about how to proceed if the Library does not receive the grant award. Ms. Cornavaca thinks that the project can be amended to complete the renovation in stages when funding is acquired.

C. 2020 Staff Raises

Ms. Podolsky explained that the library traditionally follows what the township awards its’ staff. This year it was 2 ½%, which would be a cost of $45,800.
